

Register of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament: Summary of annual returns as at 31 January 2020

Fifty-second Parliament

Presented to the House of Representatives pursuant to Appendix B of the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives

MISTER SPEAKER

I have the honour to provide to you, pursuant to clause 18(3) of Appendix B of the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives, a copy of the summary booklet containing a fair and accurate description of the information contained in all returns received during the period for transmitting annual returns for the Register of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament as at 31 January 2020.

Sir Maarten Wevers KNZM

Registrar of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament

Introduction

Since 2005, members of Parliament have been required to make an annual return of their pecuniary and other specified personal interests, as set out in clauses 5 to 8 of Appendix B of the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives. The interests that are required to be registered are listed below.

Items 1 to 10 provide a “snapshot” or stocktake of pecuniary and specified interests of members as at 31 January 2020. Items 11 to 14 identify the flow of a member’s interests for the period from that member’s previous return. This report summarises the information provided to the Registrar in members’ returns in respect of any of the categories below that may apply to a member:

- 1 Company directorships and controlling interests (clause 5(1)(a))
- 2 Interests (such as shares and bonds) in companies and business entities (clause 5(1)(b) and (2))
- 3 Employment (clause 5(1)(c))
- 4 Interests in trusts (clause 5(1)(d))
- 5 Organisations and trusts seeking Government funding (clause 5(1)(e) and (3))
- 6 Real property (clause 5(1)(f) and (1)(g))
- 7 Superannuation schemes (clause 5(1)(h))
- 8 Managed investment schemes (clause 5(1)(i))
- 9 Debtors (clauses 5(1)(j), 5(4), 6, and 7)
- 10 Creditors (clauses 5(1)(k), 5(4), 6, and 7)
- 11 Overseas travel (clause 8(1)(a) and (2))
- 12 Gifts (clause 8(1)(b) and (3))
- 13 Discharged debts (clause 8(1)(c) and (4))
- 14 Payments for activities (clause 8(1)(d) and (5)).

Registrar’s comments

This summary of members’ 2020 returns is presented to the House of Representatives in order to fulfil the Register’s purpose of providing transparency about members’ interests and thereby strengthening public trust and confidence in parliamentary processes and decision-making. Members of the public and a range of external parties can take these declared interests of members into account as they assess the behaviour and performance of members of Parliament as they go about their duties.

This is the third and final summary of returns for members of the 52nd Parliament. Changes made to the requirements of the Register in the 2017 Standing Orders are now well established. I have continued to provide advice and guidance to members as they have prepared their returns, in order that they may fulfil their obligations as set out in Appendix B to the Standing Orders. There were no matters of particular concern raised by members this year, which reflects, in my view, general familiarity with both the requirements of the Register and members' personal responsibilities in relation to them.

Once again, almost all members of Parliament submitted their returns to me in accordance with the requirements of Standing Orders. I was disappointed that three members—the Hon Peeni Henare, David Seymour, and the Hon Willie Jackson—submitted their returns after the deadline. All three are experienced members who have submitted previous returns correctly, and I expected the same this year. Standing Orders make it clear that members are responsible for submitting their returns by the deadline. Because of the importance of providing transparency over members' interests to the House and the public, I have decided to include these late returns in this summary.

I encourage all members to continue to lend their support to the Register, in all respects.

Hon Amy Adams (National, Selwyn)
