(3) A member raising a point of order and any member permitted by the Speaker to speak to a point of order must put the point succinctly and speak only to the point of order raised. A point of order is heard in silence by the House.

86 Disorderly conduct
(1) The Speaker may order any member whose conduct is highly disorderly to withdraw immediately from the House during the period (up to the remainder of that day’s sitting) that the Speaker decides, except that a member ordered to withdraw before or during questions for oral answer may not return to the Chamber to ask or answer a question and no other member may ask a question on that member’s behalf.

(2) Any member ordered to withdraw from the House may not enter the Chamber but may vote.

87 Naming of member
The Speaker may name any member whose conduct is grossly disorderly and call on the House to judge the conduct of the member.

88 Member may be suspended
Whenever a member has been named, the Speaker forthwith puts a question, “That [such member] be suspended from the service of the House”. There is no amendment or debate on this question.

89 Naming in committee of whole House
If a member is named in a committee of the whole House, the committee is suspended and the chairperson reports the matter to the House. The Speaker then puts the question for the member’s suspension as provided in Standing Order 88.

90 Time during which member is suspended
If any member is suspended under Standing Order 88, the suspension—

(a) on the first occasion is for 24 hours:
(b) on the second occasion during the same Parliament is for seven days, excluding the day of suspension:
(c) on the third or any subsequent occasion during the same Parliament is for 28 days, excluding the day of suspension.

91 Refusal to obey Speaker’s direction
If any member who is suspended under Standing Order 88 refuses to obey a direction of the Speaker to leave the Chamber, that member is, without any further question being put, suspended from the service of the House for the remainder of the calendar year.

92 Rights forfeited by suspended member
A member who is suspended from the service of the House may not enter the Chamber, vote, serve on a committee, or lodge questions or notices of motion.
93 House’s right to hold in contempt
The fact that a member has been suspended under Standing Order 88 or 91 does not prevent the House from also holding the member’s conduct to be a contempt.

MOTIONS
94 Notice necessary before motion moved
A motion may be moved only after notice of it is given and the notice appears on the Order Paper, unless a Standing Order or the practice of the House provides to the contrary.

95 Giving of notice of motion
(1) Subject to paragraph (2), notice of a motion a member intends to move may be given by any member by delivering a signed copy to the Clerk between 9 am and 10 am on any sitting day.

(2) Notice of a motion relating to a particular Supplementary Order Paper cannot be given unless that Supplementary Order Paper has been circulated to members.

96 Examination of notices
The Speaker examines all notices of motion that have been given, and those that are accepted as being in order are made available at the Table when the House meets and are set down as Government or Members’ orders of the day according to whether they are Government notices of motion or Members’ notices of motion.

97 Disposal of Members’ notices of motion
Subject to Standing Orders 317, 319, and 320, all Members’ notices of motion that have not been dealt with within one week of their first appearance on the Order Paper lapse and are struck off the Order Paper.

98 Form and content of notices
(1) A notice of motion must be expressed in a form and with content appropriate for a resolution of the House. It must clearly indicate the issue to be raised for debate and include only such material as may be necessary to identify the facts or matter to which the motion relates.

(2) Notices of motion must not contain—
(a) unbecoming or offensive expressions, or expressions or words that would not be permitted in debate:

(b) statements of fact or the names of persons unless they are strictly necessary to render the notice intelligible and can be authenticated.
99 No seconder required
A seconder is not required for a motion.

100 Question proposed on motion
(1) When a motion has been moved, the Speaker proposes the question, “That the motion be agreed to”.
(2) After the Speaker has proposed the question on the motion, the motion cannot be withdrawn without leave.

101 Rescission of resolution
A resolution of the House may be rescinded on motion with notice.

When two or more members rise together, the member called upon by the Speaker is entitled to speak.

103 Factors to be taken into account by Speaker in calling members
In deciding whom to call, the Speaker takes account of the following factors:
(a) if possible, a member of each party should be able to speak in each debate:
(b) overall participation in a debate should be approximately proportional to party membership in the House:
(c) priority should be given to party spokespersons in order of size of party membership in the House:
(d) the seniority of members and the interests and expertise of individual members who wish to speak.

104 Members to address Speaker
A member on being called to speak addresses the Speaker and, through the Speaker, the House.

105 Speeches in English or Māori
A member may address the Speaker in English or in Māori.

106 Member may speak only once to question
Except as otherwise provided, a member may speak only once to a question before the House.

(1) A member who has spoken to a question may speak again to explain some material part of the member’s speech which has been misquoted, misunderstood, or misrepresented in the same debate.
(2) A member may not introduce any new matter or interrupt any member to explain a misquotation, misunderstanding, or misrepresentation.

108 Relevancy
(1) All debate must be relevant to the question before the House.
(2) After having called the attention of the House to the conduct of a member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition either of the member’s own arguments or of the arguments used by other members in debate, the Speaker may terminate that member’s speech.

109 Visual aids
(1) A member may use an appropriate visual aid to illustrate a point being made during the member’s speech, provided that the aid does not inconvenience other members or obstruct the proceedings of the House.
(2) Such an aid may be displayed only when the member is speaking to a question before the House and must be removed from the Chamber at the conclusion of the member’s speech.

110 Anticipating discussion
(1) A member may not anticipate discussion of any general business or order of the day.
(2) In determining whether a discussion is out of order, the Speaker has regard to the probability of the matter anticipated being brought before the House within a reasonable time.

111 Proceedings of committees not to be referred to
A member may not refer to confidential proceedings of a select committee until those proceedings are reported to the House.

112 Matters subject to judicial decision
(1) Matters awaiting or under adjudication in, or suppressed by an order of, any New Zealand court may not be referred to in any motion, debate, or question, including a supplementary question, subject always to the discretion of the Speaker and to the right of the House to legislate on any matter or to consider delegated legislation.
(2) To enable the exercise of the Speaker’s discretion under paragraph (1), a member who intends to refer to such a matter must give written notice to the Speaker of this intention.

(3) In determining whether to exercise discretion under paragraph (1), the Speaker has regard to the written notice given by the member under paragraph (2), and—
   (a) balances the privilege of freedom of speech against the public interest in maintaining confidence in the judicial resolution of disputes; and
   (b) takes into account the constitutional relationship of mutual respect that exists between the legislative and judicial branches of government, and the risk of prejudicing a matter awaiting or under adjudication in any New Zealand court, including one awaiting sentencing.

113 Application of prohibition of reference to matters awaiting judicial decision

(1) Standing Order 112 has effect,—
   (a) in relation to a criminal case, from the moment the law is set in motion by a charge being made:
   (b) in relation to cases other than criminal, from the time when proceedings have been initiated by the filing of the appropriate document in the registry or office of the court.

(2) Standing Order 112 ceases to have effect in any case when the verdict and sentence have been announced or judgment given.

(3) In any case where notice of appeal is given, Standing Order 112 has effect from the time when the notice is given until the appeal has been decided.

114 Offensive references to House or judiciary

A member may not use offensive words against the House or against any member of the judiciary.

115 References to Sovereign or Governor-General

A member may not refer to the Sovereign or the Governor-General disrespectfully in debate or for the purpose of influencing the House in its deliberations.

116 Offensive or disorderly words

If any offensive or disorderly words are used, whether by a member who is speaking or by a member who is present, the Speaker intervenes.
117 Personal reflections
A member may not make an imputation of improper motives against a member, an offensive reference to a member’s private affairs, or a personal reflection against a member.

118 Time limits of speeches and debates
(1) The time limits for speeches and debates are set out in Appendix A.
(2) An individual speaking time may be shared between two members of the same party or between two members of different parties if both parties agree.

(2) After the Speaker has proposed the question on an amendment, the amendment cannot be withdrawn without leave.

123 Debate on main question and amendment
After the question has been proposed on an amendment, both the main question and the amendment (and any other amendments already moved) are open for debate.

124 Amendment to amendment
An amendment may be moved to a proposed amendment.
125 Member who has already spoken may speak to new amendment

After an amendment has been moved, a member who has spoken prior to the member who moved the amendment—
(a) may speak a further time, but
(b) may not move a further amendment.

126 Member who has moved amendment may not move further amendment

A member who has moved an amendment may not move a further amendment to the same question.

127 Questions put

(1) At the conclusion of the debate on a motion, the question on any amendment that is in order is put.
(2) Amendments are put in the order in which they were moved.

INTERUPTION OF DEBATE

(c) by the suspension or conclusion of a sitting.

(h) in accordance with a decision of the House or a determination of the Business Committee.
ADJOURNMENT OF DEBATE

130 Adjournment of debate
(1) After a question has been proposed, any member, on being called to speak to that question, may move “That this debate be now adjourned” either to a later hour on the same day or to any other day. There is no amendment or debate on this question.
(2) On the adjournment of the House, any debate in progress is adjourned and set down for resumption on the next sitting day.

131 Member entitled to speak first on resumption
The member upon whose motion a debate is adjourned or who was speaking when the House adjourned may speak first on the resumption of the debate if the member claims that right.

132 If motion negatived mover may speak
If a motion for the adjournment of the debate is negatived, the member moving the motion for the adjournment may speak, otherwise the member’s speech lapses.

CLOSURE OF DEBATE

133 Closure
(1) After a question has been proposed, any member, on being called to speak to that question, may move “That the question be now put”. In all cases the speech of the member lapses on the moving of the closure motion.
(2) The Speaker may not accept a closure motion if the time for the debate is prescribed by the Standing Orders or by a determination of the Business Committee.
(3) The Speaker may accept a closure motion if, in the Speaker’s opinion, it is reasonable to do so.
(4) A temporary Speaker or, in committee, a temporary chairperson may not accept a closure motion.

134 Acceptance of closure motion
If the Speaker accepts a closure motion, a question is put on the closure and decided without amendment or debate.

135 Effect of carrying of closure
(1) When the question for the closure is agreed to, the question under debate is put without further amendment or debate.
(2) Any other question (including any proposed amendment that has been properly notified on a Supplementary Order Paper or handed in to the Table before the closure motion was accepted and that relates to the matter under consideration) is then put to allow the main question itself to be decided without further amendment or debate.

PUTTING THE QUESTION

136 Question is put when debate concluded

(1) Except where otherwise provided, as soon as the debate upon a question is concluded the Speaker puts the question to the House.

(2) Questions are determined by a majority of votes Aye or No. Every member is entitled to one vote or to abstain.

137 Voice vote

The Speaker asks members to answer “Aye” or “No” to the question and states the result of the voice vote. Any member present may then call for a further vote to be held.

138 Party vote

Where a further vote is called for, a party vote is held unless the subject of the vote is to be treated as a conscience issue.

139 Personal vote on conscience issue

Where the Speaker considers that the subject of a vote is to be treated as a conscience issue, the Speaker will permit a personal vote to be held instead of a party vote.

140 Procedure for party vote

(1) In a party vote,—

(a) the Clerk asks the leader of each party or a member authorised by the leader to cast the party’s votes; parties are asked to vote in the order of the size of their parliamentary membership;

(b) a party’s votes may be cast for the Ayes or for the Noes or recorded as an abstention, and a party may cast some of its votes in one of these categories and some in another or others (a split-party vote):

(c) the total number of votes cast for each party may include only those members present within the parliamentary precincts together with any properly authorised proxy votes:

(d) after votes have been cast by parties, any Independent member and any member who is voting contrary to his or her party’s vote may cast a vote; finally, any proxy vote for a member who is voting contrary to his or her party may be cast:

(e) the Speaker declares the result to the House.

(2) If a party casts a split-party vote, the member casting the vote must deliver to the Clerk at the Table, immediately after the vote, a list showing the names of the members of that party voting in the various categories.

(3) Any member absent from the parliamentary precincts—

(a) attending a meeting of a select committee held outside the Wellington area with the agreement of the House or the Business Committee, or

(b) on official parliamentary travel funded by the Office of the Clerk, or

(c) attending other official business approved by the Business Committee—is regarded as present for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c).

(4) Subject to Standing Order 152, any party consisting of five or fewer members, and any Independent member, may cast their votes by proxy, otherwise a party may have votes cast on its behalf only if it has a member in the House at the time of the vote.

(5) The number of votes cast for each party and the names of the members of a party voting in each category on a split-party vote are recorded in the Journals of the House and in Hansard.

141 Personal vote following party vote

A personal vote may be held following a party vote if a member requests one and the Speaker considers that the decision on the party vote is so close that a personal vote may make a material difference to the result.

142 Procedure for personal vote

(1) In a personal vote,—

(a) the bells are rung for seven minutes:

(b) the Speaker directs the Ayes to pass to the right, the Noes to the left, and abstentions to the centre, and appoints a teller for the Ayes and one for the Noes:

(c) the doors are closed and locked as soon after the bells have stopped as the Speaker directs, and the Speaker then restates the question:

(d) all members present within the Chamber or the lobbies when the doors are locked must vote or record their abstentions:
(e) members’ votes are counted by the tellers and their names recorded; members abstaining have their abstentions recorded by the Clerk at the Table:

(f) the personal vote lists are signed by the tellers and returned to the Speaker, and the Speaker declares the result to the House.

(2) Members may observe the voting in any part of the Chamber and in the lobbies.

143 Members to remain in Chamber
Members voting or abstaining on a personal vote must remain in the Chamber or in the lobbies until the declaration of the result by the Speaker; the vote or abstention of any member who does not remain in the Chamber or in the lobbies until the declaration of the result is disallowed.

144 One-minute bell for personal votes in certain cases
In respect of any personal vote that is held without any debate or other proceeding occurring since the immediately preceding personal vote, the bells may be rung for one minute only.

145 Member acting as teller must continue to act unless excused by Speaker
A member who has begun to act as a teller must continue to act in that capacity unless excused by the Speaker.

146 If no teller no personal vote allowed
If there is no teller for the Ayes or for the Noes, the Speaker immediately declares the result for the other side.

147 Records of personal votes
(1) The names of members who have voted or abstained on a personal vote are recorded in the Journals.

(2) The personal vote lists show where an individual’s vote or abstention is by proxy.

148 Fewer than 20 members participating
Where fewer than 20 members vote or abstain on a personal vote, that vote is of no effect.

149 Errors and mistakes
(1) In the case of confusion or error concerning the result of a vote, the House, unless any error can be otherwise corrected, proceeds to a second vote.

(2) If the result of a vote has been inaccurately reported, the Speaker may correct it.
150 Ties
In the case of a tie on a vote, the question is lost.

151 Proxy voting
(1) A member may give authority for a proxy vote to be cast in the member’s name or for an abstention to be recorded.
(2) A proxy must state the name of the member who is giving the authority, the date it is given, and the period or business for which the authority is valid. It must be signed by the member giving it and indicate the member who is given authority to exercise it.
(3) A member who has given a proxy may revoke or amend that proxy at any time before its exercise.
(4) The leader or senior whip of each party, or a member acting as the leader or senior whip of the party in the House for the time being, may exercise a proxy vote for any member of the party, subject to any express direction from a member to the contrary.

152 Casting of proxy vote
(1) A proxy vote may be cast or an abstention recorded on a party or personal vote only by the person who has authority to exercise it. In the case of any dispute, the member exercising a proxy must produce the authority to the Speaker.
(2) In the case of a party vote, proxies may be exercised for a number equal to no more than 25 percent of a party’s membership in the House, rounded upwards where applicable, but at least one proxy may be exercised for a party.
(3) In the case of a party vote, proxy votes may be exercised for a party consisting of two to five members only if at least one of the members of that party is within the parliamentary precincts at the time.
(4) In the case of a party vote, a proxy may be exercised for a party consisting of one member and for any Independent member only if the member concerned is—
(a) present within the parliamentary precincts, or
(b) absent from the parliamentary precincts attending a meeting of a select committee held outside the Wellington area with the agreement of the House or the Business Committee, or
(c) absent from the parliamentary precincts attending other official business approved by the Business Committee, or
(d) absent from the parliamentary precincts with the permission of the Speaker granted—

(ii) to enable the member to attend to other public business (whether in New Zealand or overseas).

       custody, or control to the House or a committee.
(2) Every summons issued at the direction of the House or a with by the person to whom it is addressed, and

    (b) is signed by the Speaker and served upon the person concerned under the Speaker’s direction.

154 Examination on oath
(1) The House may, on motion without notice, order that any person giving evidence before it be examined after taking an oath or

(b) takes account of the extent to which the reference is capable of adversely affecting, or damaging the reputation of, the person making the submission.

(3) The Speaker is not to consider or judge the truth of the reference made in the House or of the response to it.

158 Speaker decides against incorporation

If the Speaker decides that the response should not be incorporated in the parliamentary record, the Speaker must inform the person concerned that no further action will be taken.

159 Speaker decides response should be incorporated

(1) A response that the Speaker determines should be incorporated in the parliamentary record is presented to the House and is published under the authority of the House.

(2) No response under this Standing Order is required in respect of select committee reports on bills, Supplementary Order Papers, questions of privilege, Estimates, Supplementary Estimates, and financial reviews of departments, Offices of Parliament, Crown entities, public organisations, or State enterprises.
CHAPTER 5

LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURES

FORM OF BILLS

250 Classification of bills

(1) A bill may be introduced as—
   (a) a Government bill—a bill dealing with a matter of public policy introduced by a Minister, or
   (b) a Member’s bill—a bill dealing with a matter of public policy introduced by a member who is not a Minister, or
   (c) a local bill—a bill promoted by a local authority, which affects a particular locality only, or (d) a private bill—a bill promoted by a person or body of persons (whether incorporated or not) for the particular interest or benefit of that person or body of persons,— and a bill must show on its face which of these types it is.

(2) If any question arises as to the classification of a bill, the Speaker decides the matter.

251 Enacting formula in bills

The enacting formula in bills introduced into the House is in the following form:

“The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:”

or, in the case of bills containing a preamble:

“The Parliament of New Zealand therefore enacts as follows:”.

252 Title

The first clause of each bill is confined to stating the title by which the Act is to be known.

253 Date of commencement

(1) A bill must include a distinct clause stating when the bill comes into force.

(2) If different provisions of a bill are to come into force on different dates, the distinct clause may refer to separate clauses or subclauses that state when each of those provisions comes into force.
254 Explanatory notes
Every bill as introduced must have an explanatory note that states the policy that the bill seeks to achieve, and may also explain the provisions of the bill.

255 Private bills
Every private bill must contain a preamble, setting out the facts on which the bill is founded and the circumstances giving rise to the necessity for it. If the objects of the bill could be attained otherwise than by legislation, the preamble must state why legislation is preferred.

256 Temporary law
(1) If a bill for an Act provides that the whole of the Act itself is to be repealed or is to expire, that repeal or expiry must be provided for in a distinct clause in the bill.
(2) If a bill for an Act provides that a provision of the Act is to be repealed or is to expire, that repeal or expiry must be provided for in a distinct clause or a distinct subclause in the bill.
(3) This Standing Order does not apply in relation to a provision of a bill that is to be incorporated into another enactment, for example, a new section inserted into a principal Act.

257 Bills to relate to one subject area
(1) Except as otherwise permitted by the Standing Orders, a bill must relate to one subject area only.
(2) A bill may make consequential amendments to a number of Acts affected by its provisions.

258 Speaker to scrutinise bills
The Speaker scrutinises each bill on its introduction to ensure that it complies with Standing Order 257. Any bill that does not comply is discharged or allowed to proceed with such amendments as the Speaker directs.

OMNIBUS BILLS
259 Types of omnibus bills that may be introduced
(1) The following types of bills may be introduced although they are omnibus in nature:
   (a) Finance bills or confirmation bills that validate or authorise action otherwise illegal or validate and confirm regulations:
   (b) Taxation bills:
(c) Local Legislation bills that contain provisions affecting particular localities, which otherwise would have been introduced as local bills:

(d) Māori Purposes bills that—
   (i) amend one or more Acts relating to Māori affairs, or
   (ii) deal with authorisations, transfers, and validations in respect of Māori land and property:

(e) Reserves and Other Lands Disposal bills that—
   (i) deal only with authorisations, transfers and validations of matters relating to Crown land, reserves and other land held for public or private purposes, or
   (ii) amend a Reserves and Other Lands Disposal Act:

(f) Statutes Amendment bills that consist entirely of amendments to Acts.

(2) Matter more appropriate for inclusion in a Local Legislation Bill, a Māori Purposes Bill, or a Reserves and Other Lands Disposal Bill is to be included in one of those types of bills rather than a Finance Bill.

260 Other omnibus bills

An omnibus bill to amend more than one Act may be introduced if—

(a) the amendments deal with an interrelated topic that can be regarded as implementing a single broad policy, or

(b) the amendments to be effected to each Act are of a similar nature in each case, or

(c) the Business Committee has agreed to the bill’s introduction as an omnibus bill.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

261 Same bill or amendment not to be proposed

The following may not be proposed in the same calendar year:

(a) a bill that is the same in substance as a bill that received, or was defeated on, a first, second or third reading:

(b) an amendment to a bill that is the same in substance as an amendment that was agreed to or defeated in a committee of the whole House.
262 New Zealand Bill of Rights

(1) Whenever a bill contains any provision which appears to the Attorney-General to be inconsistent with any of the rights and freedoms contained in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, the Attorney-General must indicate to the House what that provision is and how it appears to be inconsistent with the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.

(2) An indication by the Attorney-General to the House concerning the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 is made by the presentation of a paper,—

(a) in the case of a Government bill, on the introduction of that bill, or

(b) in any other case, as soon as practicable after the introduction of the bill.

(3) Where the House has accorded urgency to the introduction of a bill, the Attorney-General may, on the bill’s introduction, present a paper under this Standing Order in the House.

(4) A paper presented under this Standing Order is published under the authority of the House.

263 Entrenched provisions

(1) A proposal for entrenchment must itself be carried in a committee of the whole House by the majority that it would require for the amendment or repeal of the provision to be entrenched.

(2) A proposal for entrenchment is any provision in a bill or amendment to a bill that would require that that provision or amendment or any other provision can be amended or repealed only by a majority of more than 50 percent plus one of all the members of the House.

264 Copies of bills

(1) On the introduction of a bill, the member in charge must provide printed copies of the bill to the Clerk for circulation.

(2) A bill must be reprinted when it is reported by a select committee or committee of the whole House if it is reported with amendment or is divided by the committee, except—

(a) a bill passed under urgency, or

(b) a bill that is set down for third reading forthwith, or

(c) as approved by the Speaker in respect of any minor textual amendment.
(3) A bill must be reprinted when it is divided by the Clerk following a determination of the Business Committee, except when the bill is set down for third reading forthwith.

(4) If a bill is reprinted,—
   (a) the member in charge must provide printed copies of the reprinted bill to the Clerk for circulation, and
   (b) the bill is not available for debate until copies of it, as reprinted, have been circulated to members.

265 Passing of bills
(1) A bill must be read three times by order of the House to be passed by the House.
(2) On every order for the reading of a bill the title only is read.

266 Cognate bills
(1) The House or the Business Committee may determine that any two or more bills are cognate bills. Such a determination may be made in respect of bills before or after their introduction, and may relate to any or all of the first, second and third readings of the bills concerned.
(2) Cognate bills that are set down on the Order Paper for the same stage are taken as one question for the purpose of debate, provided that the member in charge of a cognate bill or bills may require the bill or bills to be set down separately.
(3) Unless the House or the Business Committee determines otherwise, if one or more of the cognate bills to be taken as one question under paragraph (2) is a Government bill, the time for debate on the cognate bills is the same as would apply for Government bills.

267 Special rules in respect of Appropriation and Imprest Supply bills
The procedures for passing Appropriation bills and Imprest Supply bills are subject to the special rules set out in Chapter 6.

268 Member’s bill may be adopted by Government
(1) The Government may, with the agreement of the member in charge, adopt a Member’s bill.
(2) The Minister adopting a bill for the Government must notify the Speaker in writing that the bill has been adopted by the Government.
(3) A bill adopted by the Government is thereafter treated as a Government bill.
269 Private bills
Before a private bill is introduced it must be endorsed as complying with the Standing Orders as provided in Appendix C.

270 Local bills and Local Legislation bills
(1) Legislation that would otherwise require to be introduced by means of a local bill may be included in a Local Legislation Bill.
(2) Before a local bill or a Local Legislation Bill is introduced it must be endorsed as complying with the Standing Orders as provided in Appendix C.

271 Withdrawal of local bills and private bills
(1) The promoter of a local bill or a private bill may, in writing, notify the Speaker that the promoter withdraws the bill. The Speaker informs the House of any such notification.
(2) A bill that has been withdrawn is discharged from further consideration by the House.

INTRODUCTION

272 Introduction of Government bills
A Government bill is introduced by the Leader of the House informing the Clerk on any working day, or by 1 pm on any sitting day, of the Government’s intention to introduce the bill.

273 Introduction of Members’ bills
A Member’s bill is introduced when its introduction is announced to the House by the Clerk.

274 Notice of proposal of Members’ bills
(1) Notice of a member’s proposal to introduce a Member’s bill (notice of proposal) may be given by delivering a signed copy of the notice to the Clerk on any working day.
(2) A notice of proposal, if in order, is held by the Clerk until the bill is introduced, unless the member in whose name the notice stands withdraws it.
(3) A member may not, at the same time, propose more than one Member’s bill for introduction.
275 Fair copies of proposed Members’ bills
(1) A fair copy of each proposed Member’s bill must be delivered to the Clerk no later than the time at which the member gives notice of proposal to introduce it.
(2) The Clerk provides access through a website to fair copies of proposed Members’ bills for which the Clerk holds notices of proposal.
(3) A fair copy of a proposed Member’s bill may be withdrawn and replaced only if the member gives a new notice of proposal at the same time.

276 Support for proposed Members’ bills
Any member may indicate support for the introduction of a proposed Member’s bill for which the Clerk holds a notice of proposal.

277 Ballot for Members’ bills
(1) Eight orders of the day for the first readings of Members’ bills are available for consideration at each sitting at which Members’ orders of the day take precedence. When it appears to the Clerk that fewer than eight such orders of the day will be available, the Clerk conducts a ballot to select which proposed Members’ bills are to be introduced and the order in which they are to be introduced. Such a ballot is conducted at midday on a sitting day. All notices of proposal that are held by the Clerk at 10 am that day are entered in the ballot.
(2) Only one notice of proposal is to be entered in respect of any bills that are the same or substantially the same in substance. When the Clerk holds notices of proposal for two or more bills that are the same or substantially the same in substance, the notice that is to be entered in the ballot is (in the absence of agreement among the members concerned) determined by a preliminary ballot conducted by the Clerk.
(3) The Clerk announces the introduction of the bill or bills selected in a ballot under paragraph (1).

278 Introduction of local bills and private bills
A local bill or a private bill is introduced when notice of intention to introduce it is given by any member by delivering a signed copy to the Clerk on any working day or by 1 pm on any sitting day.

279 Announcement of introduction of bills
The Clerk announces the introduction of bills at the time appointed by Standing Order 64.
280 Introduction of Appropriation bills, Imprest Supply bills, and bills under urgency

An Appropriation Bill, an Imprest Supply Bill, and any bill to which the House has accorded urgency may be introduced and proceeded with at any time but not so as to interrupt a debate.

FIRST READING

281 Bills set down for first reading

(1) After its introduction a Government bill is set down for first reading,—

(a) in the case of a bill introduced on any sitting day, on the next Tuesday on which the House sits, or
(b) in the case of a bill introduced on any working day that is not a sitting day, on the third sitting day following.

(2) A private bill, local bill, or Member’s bill is set down for first reading on the third sitting day following its introduction.

(3) Urgency may be accorded to the first reading of a bill despite the bill not being available to be set down for first reading under paragraph (1) or (2).

282 First reading

The motion on the order of the day for the first reading of a bill is that the bill be now read a first time.

283 Speech of member moving first reading

(1) The member moving the bill’s first reading must, on the commencement of that member’s speech,—

(a) nominate the select committee to consider the bill, and
(b) if it is proposed to move for any special powers or instruction in respect of the committee’s consideration of the bill, indicate the terms of that proposed motion.

(2) Following the member’s speech, written notice of any special powers or instruction to be moved must be delivered to the Clerk at the Table.

(3) This Standing Order does not apply in respect of a bill that is not to stand referred to a select committee under Standing Order 284.
SELECT COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

284 Reference to select committee
(1) A bill stands referred to a select committee for consideration after its first reading unless the House has otherwise accorded urgency to it.

(2) An Appropriation Bill and an Imprest Supply Bill do not stand referred to a committee.

285 Determination of committee to consider bill
(1) At any time before the question is put on a bill’s first reading, a member may deliver to the Clerk at the Table a nomination of a select committee, other than the committee nominated under Standing Order 283(1)(a), to consider the bill.

(2) Following the bill’s first reading, the question is put that the bill be considered by the committee nominated under Standing Order 283(1)(a). If the question is lost, the question is put on any nomination of another select committee made under paragraph (1). There is no amendment or debate on a question for the nomination of a committee to consider the bill.

(3) The committee to consider the bill may be a committee to be specially established by motion with notice.

286 Instruction to select committee
(1) When the House has determined the committee to consider the bill, and if the terms of a motion for any special powers or instruction in respect of the committee’s consideration of the bill have been indicated under Standing Order 283(1)(b), the member in charge may move that motion.

(2) If an instruction relates only to the time for report on the bill, and provides for the time for report on the bill to be between four and six months, there is no debate on the question or on any amendment to the question.

(3) Any debate on the question for a motion under this Standing Order is restricted to the special powers or instruction set out in the motion. It may not extend to the principles, objects, or provisions of the bill to which the motion relates.
287 Select committee consideration of bills

(1) Each select committee to which a bill is referred examines the bill and—
   (a) determines whether to recommend that the bill be passed, and
   (b) may recommend amendments in accordance with Standing Order 288.

(2) In the case of a private bill, the committee also determines whether or not the statements in the preamble have been proved to the satisfaction of the committee.

(3) In the case of a Local Legislation Bill, the committee also determines whether, in the committee’s opinion, any clause or clauses should more properly be the subject of a local bill.

(4) A report by a select committee on a bill indicates the committee’s determinations on the matters set out in this Standing Order.

288 Recommendation of amendments

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Standing Order, a select committee may recommend only amendments that are relevant to the subject-matter of the bill, are consistent with the principles and objects of the bill, and otherwise conform to the Standing Orders and the practices of the House.

(2) Further to paragraph (1), a committee may not recommend an amendment to a local bill or a private bill that is outside the scope of the notices advertising the intention to introduce or promote the bill.

(3) Despite paragraph (1), a committee may, in the case of a Statutes Amendment Bill, recommend, by leave, a substantive amendment to an Act not amended by the bill as originally introduced.

(4) In its report to the House recommending amendments to a bill, a committee must distinguish between those amendments adopted unanimously by the committee and those adopted by a majority of the committee.

289 Opinions from other committees

(1) The select committee to which a bill is referred may ask any other committee for its opinion on the bill or on a part, clause, schedule, or other provision of the bill.

(2) For the purposes of giving its opinion, the other committee may call for submissions, hear evidence, and generally consider the part, clause, schedule, or other provision. In giving its opinion to the select committee on the bill, it may, if it thinks fit, recommend amendments to the part, clause, schedule, or other provision.
290 Select committee may divide bill
(1) A select committee may divide into two or more separate bills any bill which—
(a) is drafted in parts, or
(b) lends itself to division because it comprises more than one subject-matter,— and report such bills separately to the House.
(2) A new bill must have inserted into it an enacting formula, title, and commencement provision.

SELECT COMMITTEE REPORTS
291 Time for report
(1) A select committee must finally report to the House on a bill within six months of the bill being referred to it or by such other time as fixed by the House or the Business Committee.
(2) The Business Committee may extend the time for report for any bill.
(3) If the committee has not reported within the time for report, the bill is discharged from further consideration by the committee and set down for its next stage in the House on the third sitting day following.

292 Select committee reports
Following the presentation of a select committee report on a bill,—
(a) in the case of a report other than an interim report or a special report, the bill is set down for second reading, or
(b) in the case of an interim report or a special report, the report is set down for consideration—on the third sitting day following, according to whether the bill is a Government bill, a Member’s bill, a local bill, or a private bill.

SECOND READING
293 Second reading
The motion on the order of the day for the second reading of a bill is that the bill be now read a second time.

294 Questions put at conclusion of debate
(1) At the conclusion of the debate on the second reading of a bill, the Speaker puts a question that the amendments recommended by the committee by majority be agreed to. There is no amendment or further debate on the question.
(2) When this question is determined, the Speaker puts a further question, that the bill be now read a second time.

295 Next stage of bill
A bill that has been read a second time is set down for consideration in committee next sitting day. The Business Committee may determine that the bill does not require consideration in committee, in which case the order of the day is altered and the bill is set down for third reading.

296 Adoption of amendments
Amendments recommended by a committee by majority that are agreed to by the House and amendments recommended by the committee unanimously are adopted as part of the bill when the bill is read a second time.

COMMITTEE STAGE

297 Arrangements for consideration in committee
(1) The Business Committee may, in relation to a bill’s consideration by a committee of the whole House, determine—
   (a) how the committee will consider the bill:
   (b) that the committee’s powers are to be extended or restricted in regard to its consideration of the bill.
(2) A determination under paragraph (1) may be made in respect of a bill before or after its introduction, and may be varied by—
   (a) a further determination of the Business Committee,
   (b) a decision of the committee of the whole House,
   (c) an instruction under Standing Order 173, or
   (d) postponement by the member in charge of the bill under Standing Order 299(1)(d).
(3) Where practicable, the Government advises the Business Committee which bills are intended by the Government to be considered in committee in the next week in which the House will sit. Such advice is noted on the Order Paper unless the Business Committee agrees otherwise.

298 Consideration in committee
(1) A committee of the whole House considers a bill to determine whether the bill properly incorporates the principles or objects of the bill as read a second time by the House.
(2) The committee may make amendments that are relevant to the subject-matter of the bill, are consistent with the principles and objects of the bill, and otherwise conform to the Standing Orders and the practices of the House.
(3) No amendment may be made to a local bill or a private bill that is outside the scope of the notices advertising the intention to introduce or promote the bill.

299 Order of considering bill

(1) Subject to this Standing Order, the committee considers a bill as set out in paragraph (2) unless—
   (a) the bill is not drafted in parts,
   (b) the committee decides otherwise,
   (c) the Business Committee has determined otherwise, or
   (d) the member in charge of the bill requires that consideration or further consideration of a part or other provision be postponed.

(2) When the committee considers a bill part by part, the committee considers the provisions of the bill as follows:
   (a) any preamble:
   (b) provisions contained in parts and other provisions that are not preliminary clauses:
   (c) for the purposes of debate, any schedules are considered together with the parts to which they principally relate:
   (d) questions on any schedules, which are put separately without further debate:
   (e) any preliminary clauses not in a part, which are considered together for the purposes of debate, and the questions on which are put separately without further debate.

(3) Where a bill is not drafted in parts,—
   (a) the committee considers its provisions in sequence, and
   (b) for the purposes of debate, any schedules are considered along with the clauses to which they relate, and
   (c) questions on any schedules are put separately without further debate.

(4) Unless otherwise specified, consideration or further consideration of—
   (a) any postponed clause or part is taken when all other clauses or parts have been dealt with, other than preliminary clauses that are considered together, and
   (b) any other postponed provision is taken when all other provisions have been dealt with.

300 Numbers only read

In reading the clauses or other provisions of a bill it is sufficient to read the numbers only.
301 Questions to be proposed in committee
(1) A question is proposed that each provision stand part of the bill or as amended stand part of the bill. In the case of a tie, the provision stands part of the bill.
(2) If any member objects to a clause standing part of a Statutes Amendment Bill (or of a bill that was formerly part of a Statutes Amendment Bill), the clause is struck out of the bill.

302 Amendments may be placed on Supplementary Order Paper
Any member intending to move an amendment to a bill may lodge a written copy of the amendment with the Clerk in time for the amendment to be printed on a Supplementary Order Paper and circulated to members.

303 Consideration of amendments
(1) Any relevant amendment that is on a Supplementary Order Paper that has been circulated to members, or that is delivered to the Clerk at the Table, can be referred to in the course of the debate on the provision proposed to be amended.
(2) If an amendment is not on a Supplementary Order Paper, six copies of the amendment must be delivered to the Clerk at the Table.
(3) At the conclusion of the debate on a provision, the question on any amendment or motion to change a Vote that is in order is put.
(4) The chairperson, at his or her discretion, may put a single question on a group of amendments if—
   (a) the amendments stand in the name of the same member;
   (b) the amendments lend themselves to being grouped on account of their content or subject-matter, or because they form a single alternative proposition:
   (c) grouping of the amendments is necessary to enable the committee’s effective consideration of the bill.
(5) Where amendments are proposed that, in the opinion of the chairperson, are the same in substance, the chairperson may select amendments on which to put a question, in order to test the will of the committee.

304 Amendments of member in charge
(1) The member in charge of a bill can require that any or all amendments in that member’s name to a provision be put as one question.
(2) If two or more amendments occur at the same place in the bill, then, subject to paragraph (3),—
   (a) an amendment proposed by the member in charge of the bill is taken ahead of an amendment proposed by another member, and
   (b) amendments (not being amendments of the member in charge of the bill) are put in the order in which they were lodged with, or delivered to, the Clerk.

(3) Amendments put as one question under paragraph (1) are taken after other amendments to the provision unless the member in charge of the bill requires otherwise.

305 Committee may divide bill

(1) A committee of the whole House may divide into two or more separate bills any bill that—
   (a) is drafted in parts, or
   (b) lends itself to division because it comprises more than one subject-matter—and in respect of which a Supplementary Order Paper notifying the intention to move for division of the bill into separate bills has been circulated.

(2) The Supplementary Order Paper must show how it is proposed to divide the bill, setting out the enacting formula, title, and commencement provision for each new bill. The Supplementary Order Paper may also set out a principal Act clause for any or all of the new bills.

(3) A motion to divide a bill into separate bills, as set out on the Supplementary Order Paper, is moved after the bill has been fully considered by the committee.

(4) On determining that a bill does not require consideration in committee, the Business Committee may also determine that the Clerk divide the bill in the manner set out on a Supplementary Order Paper under this Standing Order. The bills so divided are set down for third reading.

306 Adoption of report on bill

If the report on a bill is adopted, the bill is set down for third reading or for further consideration in committee next sitting day, as the case may be.
THIRD READING AND PASSING

307 Recommital
A motion to recommit a bill to a committee of the whole House may be moved after the order of the day for the third reading of the bill has been called. There is no amendment or debate on the question.

308 Third reading
(1) The motion on the order of the day for the third reading of a bill is that the bill be now read a third time.
(2) At the option of the member in charge, the third readings of each bill divided out of a bill during the committee stage, or by determination of the Business Committee, may be taken together.

309 Members’ bills, local bills, and private bills affecting rights or prerogatives
No Member’s bill, local bill, or private bill that contains any provision affecting the rights or prerogatives of the Crown may be passed unless the Crown has, by message, indicated its consent to that provision.

310 Bill passed
When a bill has been read a third time, it has been passed by the House.

311 Bills passed to be printed fair, authenticated, and presented for Royal assent
When a bill has been passed it is printed fair, by direction of the Clerk, who authenticates two prints of it and presents them for the Royal assent.

312 Verbal or formal amendments
In preparing the bill for the Royal assent, amendments of a verbal or formal nature may be made and clerical or typographical errors may be corrected in any part of the bill by the Clerk.

313 After Royal assent given
When the Royal assent to a bill has been given, the Clerk deposits one of the fair prints of the bill with the Registrar of the High Court at Wellington, and retains the second.
DELEGATED LEGISLATION

314 Functions of Regulations Review Committee

(1) The Regulations Review Committee examines all regulations.

(2) A Minister may refer draft regulations to the committee for consideration and the committee may report on the draft regulations to the Minister.

(3) In respect of a bill before another committee, the committee may consider—
   (a) any regulation-making power,
   (b) any provision that contains a delegated power to make instruments of a legislative character, and
   (c) any matter relating to regulations,— and report on it to the committee that is considering the bill.

(5) The committee investigates complaints about the operation of regulations, in accordance with Standing Order 316, and may report on the complaints to the House.

315 Drawing attention to a regulation

(1) In examining a regulation, the committee considers whether it ought to be drawn to the special attention of the House on one or more of the grounds set out in paragraph (2).

(2) The grounds are, that the regulation—
   (a) is not in accordance with the general objects and intentions of the statute under which it is made:
   (b) trespasses unduly on personal rights and liberties:
   (c) appears to make some unusual or unexpected use of the powers conferred by the statute under which it is made:
   (d) unduly makes the rights and liberties of persons dependent upon administrative decisions which are not subject to review on their merits by a judicial or other independent tribunal:

   (i) for any other reason concerning its form or purport, calls for elucidation.
316 Procedure where complaint made concerning regulation

(1) Where a complaint is made to the committee or to the chairperson of the committee by a person or organisation aggrieved at the operation of a regulation, the complaint must be placed before the committee at its next meeting for the committee to consider whether, on the face of it, the complaint relates to one of the grounds on which the committee may draw a regulation to the special attention of the House.

(2) The person or organisation making the complaint is given an opportunity to address the committee on the regulation unless the committee agrees by unanimous resolution not to proceed with the complaint.

317 Disallowance motion does not lapse

Any notice of a motion to which section 6(1) of the Regulations (Disallowance) Act 1989 applies (being a motion for the disallowance of a regulation under that Act given by a member who is, at the time of the giving of the notice, a member of the Regulations Review Committee) does not lapse and is retained on the Order Paper until dealt with by the House.

318 Affirmative resolution procedure

(1) Any notice of a motion that the House approve a regulation, a proposed regulation, or an instruction under any statute stands referred to a select committee. The notice of motion is allocated by the Clerk to the most appropriate select committee for consideration.

(2) The committee must report to the House on any notice of motion that has been referred under this Standing Order, no later than the first working day 28 days after the day on which the notice of motion was lodged.

(3) No motion to approve a regulation, a proposed regulation, or an instruction may be moved until—

(a) after the committee to which the notice of motion was referred reports, or

(b) the first working day after 28 days have passed since the day on which notice of motion was lodged,— whichever is the earlier.

(4) If the committee to which the notice of motion was referred recommends to the Government that the regulation, proposed regulation, or instruction to which the notice of motion relates be amended, a further notice of motion for the approval of a regulation, proposed regulation, or instruction that incorporates the amendment or amendments recommended by the committee, and only that amendment or those amendments, does not stand referred to a select committee under paragraph (1).

319 Negative resolution procedure

FINANCIAL PROCEDURES

GOVERNMENT’S FINANCIAL VETO

321 Financial veto

(2) In addition, the House will not make a change to a Vote that the Government certifies it does not concur in because, in its view, the change would, if made, have more than a minor impact on the composition of the Vote.

(3) In this Standing Order, and in Standing Orders 322 and 323, motion means a motion that, if passed as a resolution of the House of Representatives, would have the force of law.

322 Financial veto certificate
(1) A certificate by the Government not concurring in a bill, amendment, or motion on the ground that, in its view, the bill, amendment, or motion would have more than a minor impact on the Government’s fiscal aggregates must state with some particularity the nature of the impact on the fiscal aggregate or aggregates concerned and the reason why the Government does not concur in the bill, amendment, or motion.

(2) A certificate by the Government not concurring in a change to a Vote on the ground that, in its view, the change would have more than a minor impact on the composition of the Vote must state with some particularity the nature of the impact on the composition of the Vote and the reason why the Government does not concur in the change.

(3) A certificate is given by delivering it to the Clerk.

(2) The certificate may relate to the bill as a whole or to a particular provision or provisions of the bill.

In the case of a motion to change a Vote, 24 hours’ notice is not required where the proposed change was recommended in the report of the select committee that examined the Vote.

388 Only one debate on same day

Only one debate on a matter of urgent public importance may be held on the same day. (4) For the purposes of subclause (1)(d), a description of a payment is required if the terms of the payment have been agreed in the period specified in clause 9, even if the payment has not been received during that period.

9 Period covered by return

(1) The period for which the information specified in clause 8 must be provided is the 12-month period ending on the effective date of the return.

(2) However,—

(a) a member does not have to include any information specified in clause 8 that has been included in a previous return:

(b) if the member is elected at an election and the member was not also a member of Parliament immediately before that election and the return is the first return required to be made by the member after that election, the period for which the information specified in clause 8 must be provided is the period beginning on polling day for that election and ending on the effective date of that return:

(c) if an initial return is required to be made by a member elected at a general election who was also a member of Parliament immediately before that general election, the period for which the information specified in clause 8 must be provided is the period beginning on 1 February in the year in which the general election is held and ending on the effective date of that return:

(3) For the purposes of subclause (2)(b) and (d), the first return required to be made by a member may be either an initial return or an annual return.
10 Actual value, amount, or extent not required
Nothing in this Appendix requires the disclosure of the actual value, amount, or extent of any asset, payment, interest, gift, contribution, or debt.

11 Form of returns
Returns must be either—
(a) in a form specifically prescribed by the House, or
(b) in a form approved by the Registrar.

PART 2

12 Register of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament
(1) A register called the Register of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament is established.
(2) The register comprises all returns transmitted by members under this Appendix.

13 Office of Registrar
The office of Registrar of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament is held by the Deputy Clerk or a person appointed by the Clerk, with the agreement of the Speaker, to act as Registrar.

14 Functions of Registrar
The functions of the Registrar are to—
(a) compile and maintain the register:
(b) provide advice and guidance to members in connection with their obligations under this Appendix:
(c) receive and determine requests for an inquiry under clause 16, and, if the Registrar thinks fit, conduct and report to the House on any such inquiry.

15 Auditor-General’s review
(1) The Registrar must supply to the Controller and Auditor-General a copy of every return within 21 days of the date by which all returns are due. The Registrar may, as the Registrar thinks fit, supply to the Auditor-General any other information relating to a return.
(2) The Auditor-General will review the returns provided under subclause (1) as soon as is reasonably practicable, and will advise the Registrar of any matters arising from the review.
16 Registrar’s inquiry

(1) A member who has reasonable grounds to believe that another member has not complied with his or her obligations to make a return may request that the Registrar conduct an inquiry into the matter.

(2) The request must be in writing, signed, and set out:
(a) the specific matter that the member believes to be a failure to comply, and
(b) the reasonable grounds for that belief.

(3) A member who makes a request for an inquiry under this clause must, as soon as reasonably practicable, forward a copy of the request to the member who is the subject of the request.

(4) On receiving a request, the Registrar conducts a preliminary review of the request to determine if, in the Registrar’s opinion, an inquiry is warranted. In making a determination under this subclause, the Registrar takes account of the degree of importance of the matter under inquiry, and whether the matter—
(a) may involve a breach of the obligations to make a return:
(b) is technical or trivial.

(5) On determining whether an inquiry is warranted, the Registrar must inform the member who made the request of this determination, and must also inform the member who was the subject of the request.

(6) If the Registrar determines that an inquiry is warranted, the Registrar conducts an inquiry.

(7) In conducting the inquiry, the Registrar—
(a) must invite the member who is the subject of the inquiry to provide a response to the matter under inquiry within 10 working days (provided that the Registrar and the member may agree on a different period of time for the member’s response):
(b) may seek further information from the member who made the request for an inquiry, from the member who is the subject of the inquiry, and from any other person that the Registrar considers may have relevant information:
(c) may seek assistance or advice from the Auditor-General or from any other person, as the Registrar sees fit:
(d) may disclose any return or returns and information relevant to the inquiry to a person providing assistance or advice under paragraph (c).
(8) The Registrar may,—
   (a) if the Registrar considers that the matter under inquiry does not involve a breach of the obligations to make a return, or is so minor as not to warrant the further attention of the House, determine that no further action is required:
   (b) if the Registrar considers that the matter under inquiry involves an inadvertent or minor breach of the obligations to make a return, advise the member who is the subject of the inquiry to submit an amendment to the member’s return or returns to remedy the breach:
   (c) determine that the matter under inquiry involves a question of privilege, and report this to the House at the first opportunity:
   (d) report to the House on any other matter that may warrant the further attention of the House.

17 Information on Registrar’s inquiry

(1) A request under clause 16 and all information relating to the Registrar’s consideration of that request are confidential until the Registrar determines whether to conduct an inquiry in respect of the request.

(2) After determining whether an inquiry is warranted under clause 16, and after informing members under clause 16(5), the Registrar may, at the Registrar’s discretion, disclose any or all of the following information:
   (a) the name of the member who made the request:
   (b) the date on which the request was received:
   (c) the name of the member who was the subject of the request:
   (d) the particular requirement or requirements in this Appendix to which the request relates.

(3) The proceedings of the conduct of an inquiry are strictly confidential, subject to clause 16(7) and (8).

(4) All returns and information disclosed to a person by the Registrar under clause 16(7)(d) are confidential and must be returned to the Registrar or destroyed when that person’s involvement in the inquiry is concluded.

(5) If the Registrar completes an inquiry under clause 16 without making a report to the House, the Registrar—
   (a) must communicate the result of the inquiry to the member who requested the inquiry and the member who was the subject of the inquiry:
   (b) publishes the result of the inquiry to the Parliament website.
If the Registrar reports to the House that the matter under inquiry involves a question of privilege, the Registrar—

(a) must, before reporting to the House, inform the member that is the subject of the inquiry that it is intended to do so, and

(b) includes in the report any information relating to the inquiry that the Registrar considers is necessary to inform the House of the matter, and

(c) forwards to the Privileges Committee any information relating to the inquiry that the Registrar considers is necessary for the committee’s consideration of the report.

In considering a question of privilege determined by the Registrar, the Privileges Committee may request from the Registrar information that it considers is necessary for the committee’s consideration. The Registrar decides whether to provide the information requested.

Information provided by the Registrar to the Privileges Committee under subclauses (6)(c) or (7) is received by the committee as evidence in private, unless it is received in secret.

Registrar must publish summary of returns of current members of Parliament

The Registrar must, within 90 days of the due date for transmitting any initial returns that are required to be made following a general election, publish on a website and in booklet form a summary containing a fair and accurate description of the information contained in those initial returns that has been transmitted by persons who, at the date of publication, are members of Parliament.

The Registrar must, within 90 days of the due date for transmitting annual returns, publish on a website and in booklet form a summary containing a fair and accurate description of the information contained in those annual returns that has been transmitted by persons who, at the date of publication, are members of Parliament.

The Registrar must promptly provide a copy of the booklet to the Speaker.

The Registrar must ensure that a summary containing a fair and accurate description of information contained in all returns is—

(a) maintained on a website;

(b) available for inspection by any person at Parliament Buildings in Wellington on every working day between the hours of 10 am and 4 pm.
APPENDIX B: PECUNIARY AND OTHER SPECIFIED INTERESTS

(5) Subclause (4) does not apply in respect of information contained in the annual return of any member who has ceased to be a member of Parliament after submitting a return and before the information is published under subclause (4).

(6) A person may take a copy of any part of the summary referred to in subclause (4)(b) on the payment of a fee (if any) specified by the House.

19 Speaker must present copy of booklet to House of Representatives
The Speaker must, as soon as practicable after receipt of a copy of a booklet under clause 18(3), present a copy of the booklet to the House.

20 Errors or omissions
(1) Any member who becomes aware of an error or omission in any return previously made by that member must advise the Registrar of that error or omission as soon as practicable after becoming aware of it.

(2) The Registrar may, at the Registrar’s own discretion, publish amendments on a website to correct errors or omissions advised under subclause (1).

(3) Nothing in this Appendix requires members to advise the Registrar of changes to their interests that have occurred since the effective date of their last return.

21 Information about register
(1) Subject to clauses 15, 16 and 17, all returns and information held by the Registrar or by the Auditor-General relating to an individual member are confidential until destroyed under subclause (2).

(2) On the dissolution or expiration of Parliament, all returns and information that have been held for three complete terms of Parliament by the Registrar or by the Auditor-General relating to individual members must be destroyed.

22 Responsibilities of members and Registrar
(1) It is the responsibility of each member to ensure that he or she fulfils the obligations imposed on the member by this Appendix.

(2) The Registrar is not required to—
(a) notify any member of that member’s failure to transmit a return by the due date or of any error or omission in that member’s return, or
(b) obtain any return from a member.

APPENDIX D

RULES FOR FILMING AND CONDITIONS FOR USE OF OFFICIAL TELEVISION COVERAGE

PART A: RULES FOR FILMING

(1) A provider of official television coverage of the House must comply with the following rules:

1. The cameras will cover the member who has been called to speak until the member’s speech is finished or the member’s call is terminated by the Speaker. Coverage will normally be medium range, head and shoulders. The director may choose to vary the camera angle to add interest to the coverage. Switching between such shots should be done at an appropriate point in the speech.

2. The default shot will be on the Speaker or presiding officer, including the arrival of the Speaker’s procession, or a wide-angle shot of the Chamber.

3. The television director may choose other shots to reflect the business transacted, such as a wide-angle shot of the Chamber or, during oral questions, a reaction shot of the Minister being asked a question or of a member listening to the reply to a question.

4. The television director may use a wide-angle shot of the Chamber as a continuity shot, for instance, at the end of oral questions or when the House is going into committee.

5. Generally, interjections are not covered. But if the member speaking engages with the interjector, the interjector’s reaction can be filmed.

6. Officials (Clerks, Serjeant-at-Arms) should be shown when they are participating in the business of the House by making announcements, calling party votes, or carrying the Mace.

7. While a personal vote is in progress, a graphic to this effect may be shown in place of live coverage, or a static wide-angle shot of the Chamber may be used, provided that this coverage does not seek to identify how individual members are voting. Any spoken proceedings that occur during a personal vote (such as a point of order) will be covered, subject to the usual rules.

8. Shots unrelated to the proceedings are not permitted, that is, interruptions from the gallery and business occurring outside the House. No close-up shots are permitted of members’ actions and interactions that are unrelated to proceedings.

9. In case of general disorder on the floor of the House, coverage will revert to the Speaker or presiding officer.

10. During an interruption to proceedings such as a prolonged disturbance from the gallery, the coverage will be of the Speaker or presiding officer, with sound from only the Speaker’s microphone. Coverage from the Chamber should continue, unless the Speaker or presiding officer indicates otherwise, by either suspending or adjourning the House, or specifically directing that coverage should cease. Television coverage recommences when the House resumes or at the direction of the Speaker or presiding officer.

11. Coverage ceases as soon as the Speaker or presiding officer announces that the House stands adjourned or the Speaker or presiding officer leaves the chair for the suspension of a sitting.

(2) These rules apply also to any other filming from the gallery.

(3) The Serjeant-at-Arms will intervene if it becomes apparent that cameras are filming matters not within the rules. Broadcasters who offend the rules may have their privilege of filming in the Chamber withdrawn.

PART B: CONDITIONS FOR USE OF OFFICIAL TELEVISION COVERAGE

(1) Official television coverage of the House is made available on the following conditions:

1. Any broadcast or rebroadcast of coverage must comply with the broadcaster’s legal obligations.

2. Coverage of proceedings must not be used in any medium for—

(a) political advertising or election campaigning (except with the permission of all members shown):

(b) satire, ridicule, or denigration:

(c) commercial sponsorship or commercial advertising.

3. Reports that use extracts of coverage of proceedings and purport to be summaries must be fair and accurate.

(2) Breach of these conditions may result in a loss of access to official television coverage, and may be treated as a contempt and proceeded against accordingly.
